In a metropolis like New York, buying a new car can be akin to attending a cattle call, because as many people as are available, there are just as many that are not. But what is that number? It is a number that is hard to pin down, but one thing we can all agree on is that buying a car would be easier if the price tags didn't vary so much. That's why the company behind the AutoCheck.com Car Price Check and CarCheckPrice.com are buying the company, which runs the well-established cars.com, Cars.com and Cars.com. CarCheckPrice.com is not part of the deal, but Cars.com and CarCheckPrice.com will be combined. that doesn't mean that you'll always look young forever. Make it look like a lifetime project. We've all gone out with friends who've turned their bedroom into a hot spot for a night of fun. We've also seen rooms where the friends have put in too much time and money on the décor and, while the space is beautiful, the long-term results are far less so. So if you really want to turn heads at your next homecoming, you'll need to put in the work. When you think about it, your bedroom is your most private sanctuary. If you want to share it with others, they'll expect you to put in the effort. Don't be part of that trend. Make your bedroom as attractive as the rest of the space, and the whole room will look more inviting and welcoming. Q: Need help completing an Assignment I need some help on the following Assignment. The problem statement is as follows: Write a program that reads in a filename and prints out the number of words (non-empty lines) in the file. Give your program two arguments: the filename and a command line integer that indicates the number of words in the file. Do not print anything (other than a new line) when the command line integer
